

Bio: Dr. Jonaki Manna

Dr. Manna grew up on the island, completed medical school at UBC, trained in hematopathology at UAH, Edmonton, followed by a fellowship in Pediatric Hematopathology at BC Children's and returned to the island to practice hematopathology full time. Her special interests are in hereditary disorders as well as teaching.