

Dr. John Penman:

- Born and schooled in Zimbabwe (ex Rhodesia)
- MBChB University of Cape Town South Africa 1972 (started medicine in 1967, the year of the worlds first heart transplant at Grootte Schuur Hospital which is the teaching hospital for medical students at UCT)
- General Pathology Specialty - University of Cape Town 1980
- 19 years in general private pathology practice 1981-1999 and senior partner for 10 years
- Director of Medical Services and Chairperson of the Global Laboratory Operations Group for a global central laboratory service for clinical pharmaceutical research - 1999 - 2008
- Currently Medical Biochemist with VIHA based at Victoria General and Royal Jubilee Hospitals