“Leadership from Within”

Thursday October 28, 2010

At the end of this session you will have a set of tools to help you move from surviving to thriving. Change is occurring all around us. Staff has expressed challenges with adjusting to changing workplaces, new roles, more work with less resources and the list goes on. These are challenging times and within every challenge opportunities exist. This session will help you recognize the opportunities and how every person within an organization can use our current environment to bring greater value to our work and every day life. This session is designed for all workers, including technologists, medical laboratory assistants and management.
